Testimonials

For a long time I wanted to communicate with people in general in a non-chat format. It was only when I was on vacation with limited access and resorted to exchanging long emails with a friend who was similarly inclined that I realized that what I wanted was penpals. 45 years ago I had them but I had forgotten about the whole things. The social networking apps that are really fronts for dating apps are a poor substitute for PPW.

Max from Italy

This is hands down the best pen pal site I've been to. There's something about the format that is ideal for fostering a different experience here than on other sites, whether they be dating sites or pen pal sites or whatever. Maybe it's the short profile text and single profile photo. It sets up for just a quick intro and encourages people to take a leap toward setting up their own communication. It must also be the type of users brought here. I don't know what it is, but thank you and please don't ever transition to become like interpals or some other site, because this place is unique.

Scott from the USA

Just a quick note to say thank you so much for having created this site. If it wasn't for you, then I would never have met what I am hoping will turn out to be my best friend forever. I will certainly promote your site to everyone, whether they want to know or not!! If the need ever arises, I will return with lightening speed. Thank you once again.

Max from France

After reading your Bio, I became speechless, just thank you so much for making the world closer.. you just proved to me that a human being can do wonders even if he's alone. a huge big up for you mate, you just inspired me in a unique way. I just spent one day here, I reaaally loved it, I think it's even better than Facebook! or any other place! keep it clean, keep it alive. Thank you for bringing the world more to our arms.

Lisa from UK

PenPal makes me feel valued and definitely more free. There's a lack of ties and complication and there are chances for more meaningful connections and relationships which is amazing.
